

maintaining this current geographical footprint, this will simplify the change process and protect the service delivery to residents, which is particularly important for the most vulnerable in society.

We will work with District and Borough councils, MPs, businesses, partners and stakeholders to build on our ambition of a more integrated set of public services across the county and we look forward to starting the conversation with you on the future of Worcestershire and devolution arrangements.

Kind regards,

